Konrad Powers
info@illinoishighpower.org

Entries Close:

Individual: September 4, 2021, 8:30 A.M.

Team: September 5, 2021, 8:30 A.M.

There will be no refunds for those canceling after firing starts.

Team entry will include team name, names and classifications of firing members, and designated captain. Team members not entered in the individual matches must submit appropriate NRA registration fee.

Fees: Individual fees include entry in all fired and aggregate individual matches and NRA registration fee. Make all checks payable to I.S.R.A.

Individual (Adults):	$40.00 (Includes $5.50 NRA Registration Fee)
Individual (Juniors):	$20.00 (Includes $5.50 NRA Registration Fee)
Team (Sunday):	$15.00/Firing Member (+$6.00 registration fee for those not firing on Saturday)

Eligibility: Open to all competitors. NRA membership is not required. Any competitor being unsafe or disruptive will be told to leave the range.

Entry Limit: 68 individual entries (4 relays), 17 four-man teams.

Rifles Allowed: Only rifles falling under NRA rules 3.1 (Service Rifles) will be allowed to fire for awards.

Empty Chamber Indicator (ECI): Empty chamber indicators conforming to rule 3.21 are required to be used at all times except during the preparation period and firing. Approved ECIs will be available at the stat office for no charge.

Squadding: All matches will be pre-squadded. Competitors/team captains will receive scorecards and squadding when they report to the stat office upon arrival at the range. Any competitor failing to report for his/her scheduled relay will forfeit his/her right to fire in that event.

Scoring: Competitors will score on their assigned relay. Failure to do so may result in tournament disqualification. Team scoring procedure will be announced the morning of the team match.

Target Service: Competitors/team members will perform pit duty on their assigned relay. Hired target pullers may be used but the competitor/team who hired them will be held responsible for their target pulling performance. Unsatisfactory target operation may result in individual or team tournament disqualification. Due to the relay schedule, some competitors may be required to pull targets for more shots than other competitors.

Classification: NRA Highpower classification will be used. Those without a highpower classification may be assigned one (Rule 19.6) or they will compete in the Master class (Rule 19.7).

Awards Schedule:

Individual Matches 1-5:

The highest scoring competitor in each match will be named match winner and receive an award.

Category awards for High Woman, High Service, High Senior, and High Junior will be awarded to the top scoring member of that category in each match provided there are at least five competing members of that category.

Class awards will be awarded depending on the number of competitors in each class. There must be a minimum of 4, 7, 10, 14, and 17 entries for 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th respectively, in class awards. If there is less than the minimum number of competitors in a class, that class will compete in the next higher class. If there is less than the minimum number of High Masters, they will compete for Match Winner only.

The 10 highest scoring Illinois residents in match #5 will be recognized as the "Governor's Ten".

The Woody Coul Trophy Plaque will be presented to the high scoring Illinois resident in match #5.

Bliss Trophy Team Match:

Each member of the highest scoring Illinois team will receive picture plaques of the Bliss Trophy. Monetary awards will be given to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place teams in each class provided there are 3, 5, and 7 teams respectively.

Challenge Period: The challenge period ends ½ hour after posting of match results.

Awards Ceremony: An awards ceremony will take place in front of the stat office approximately 20 minutes after firing has completed each day. All tournament awards must be accepted at that time or other arrangements made with the stat office. Awards not collected will be forfeit.

Tournament Results: A match bulletin will NOT be mailed. Printed match results may be picked up from the stat office or viewed at <http://www.illinoishighpower.org>. Those competitors not wishing to have their names on the web site MUST notify the stat office by the conclusion of the tournament.
